edge of the greatest importance to the single or married of either sex. While in a state of trance, she delineates the very feature of the person you are to marry and by an instrument of intense power, known as the Psychomotrope, guarantees to produce a life-like picture of the future husband or wife of the applicant, together with date of marriage, position in life, leading traits of character, &c. This is no humbug, as thousands of testimonials can assert. She will send when desired a certified certificate,

BLUE GRASS FARM

FOR SALE.

THE Farm on which I now reside is for sale. It is situated four miles south of Cynthiana, half a mile from Lair's Station, on the K. C. R. R., at which point there is a post office, express office, depot, saw mill and two excellent grist mills that manufacture the best quality of flour and meal. It is within 3 hours ride of Cincinnati, and 1 1/2 of Lexington. It contains about 175 acres, one hundred acres well timbered. The remainder cleared and in the highest state of cultivation. The fencing all in good order.

The improvements consist of a comfortable dwelling, partly frame and partly log, weatherboarded and plastered and painted, containing six rooms, cook-house and all necessary out buildings, including two large stables, (with lofts for feed,) large enough to house and feed 75 mules at a time which can be done without going out of doors, as there is large wide feed room extending the whole length of the stable, in which there is a cutting box run by horse power, with capacity and strength enough to cut a large quantity of provender in a short time. There is also a young orchard of select fruit of various kind now bearing.

The farm is supplied with abundance of pure water for all purposes, as there is upon it a number of never failing springs (some of them near the dwelling,) and South Lick which runs along one side of it. Any one wishing to purchase such a farm, would do well to call and examine for themselves, as the place will be sold for a reasonable price, the payments made easy and if desired part of the money can be run a considerable length of time at moderate interest.

I also desire to sell 400 acres of land which lies in Lewis county, Missouri. Said land is situated about 12 miles from Palmyra, on the road leading from there to Montezuma,

and about 16 miles from the Mississippi river, about one half of it timbered land, the timber excellent, the balance prairie of good quality, a little rolling and dry, is in good neighborhood, and is surrounded by old settlers and finely improved farms. There is a large handsome brick church and school house in sight of the land. Also, a small village and post office near by. Price reasonable, payments easy and made to suit the ability and convenience of purchasers. For further particular call on

WONDERFUL BUT TRUE

Madame Remington, the world renowned

THE CYNTHIANA NEWS

CYNTHIANA, KY.

THURSDAY, :::: May 16, 1867

A. J. MOREY, EDITOR.

The Democratic Senatorial Convention met in Cynthiana last Monday. It was a very respectable body, made up of the best men in these three counties, all of whom were sincere pure democrats; and whatever they did was for the best interest of the country. Its proceedings were harmonious and regular; and as soon as their organization was complete, they proceeded to balloting, and nominated L. T. Martin, of this place, the Democratic standard-bearer for the Senate. Mr. Martin is a firm and unflinching state rights Democrat, and has espoused the abolition tyrants, usurpers and hounds that have been scouring the people of the United States for the past six years. We have confidence in the political integrity of Mr. Martin, and believe that he will correctly represent the people of this District. He is a man of energy and ability, and it will never be said that he was idle or failed to attend to his duties and his constituency. He will receive a large majority in all the counties, which he is nominated to represent. See the proceedings in another column.

At last, we are happy to announce to our readers that Jefferson Davis again breathes the free air of heaven. After an incarceration of more than two years in prison, without the shadow of law, he has been admitted to bail. The nation can never wipe the stigma of disgrace attaching to the infamous act of retaining so long a state prisoner which they would not release or grant a trial. The particulars are as follows: He was brought to Richmond, Va., on a writ of habeas corpus, and was discharged, but was immediately re-arrested upon an indictment of treason, for which he gave bail to the amount of $100,000, Horace Greely being the first to go. It is surely followed by prominent men of New York and Philadelphia. We suppose this will be an end of the whole matter, for it is absurd to think that the prosecutors will carry this matter any further.

A meeting of the Democracy of this Senatorial District, composed of the counties of Scott, Harrison and Robertson, met, pursuant to a call, at the court house in Cynthiana, on the 13th of May, 1867. The meeting being called to order by W. H. Forsythe, N. Craig, Esq., of Scott, was chosen chairman, and A. J. Beale Secretary.

The chair then explained the object of the meeting to be the selection of a candidate to represent this Senatorial district in the next General Assembly of Kentucky.

The first business of the convention was the appointment of a committee on credentials, whereupon the delegates from each county selected the following named gentlemen for said committee: Scott, C. Ward, P. Thomas and J. Northcutt; Harrison, W. H. Forsythe, T. A. Frazer, and P. Wherrett; Robertson, J. R. Linville, Col. S. T. Hamilton and W. V. Prather.

During the consultation of the committee, the chairman was called upon for a speech, which he responded to in an able and dignified manner, eliciting much applause.

The committee on credentials reported the following named gentlemen as delegates from Scott: Newton, Craig, A. Thomas, J. Northcutt, J. R. Jones, P. Thomas, S. Kelly, C. Ward, J. W. Longear, T. B. Heazlitt, W. Robb, George Pruitt, A. Lilack and S. Speigle.

Harrison, Henry Ewalt, Wm. Roberts, T. A. Frazer, H. E. Shawhan, S. Levesque, W. H. Forsythe, T. Walden, W. G. Vanderen, J. L. Patterson, D. H. Raymond, Mat Lair, M. Smith, A. J. Beale, F. G. Ashbrook, N. E. Offutt and P. Wherrett.

Robertson, J. Harding, J. E. Brown, W. V. Prater, Jno R. Linville, N. Cummer, C. French, C. Bramble, Col. S. T. Hamilton and W. H. Vanhook; and that the basis for the vote to be cast should be one for every one hundred given Duvall in 1866, which arrangement entitled Scott to 17 votes, Harrison 15 and Robertson 9.

Nominations now being declared in order, P. Wherrett nominated L. T. Martin, Esq., of Cynthiana, and A. Thomas, Esq., of Scott, nominated Col. W. P. Duvall, of Scott. No other nominations being made the convention proceeded to vote. Harrison cast 15 votes for Martin, Robertson 9 for Martin, Scott 17 for Duvall.

The result showing Martin as having received 24 votes and Duvall 17.

A. Thomas then moved to make the nomination unanimous, which was done. Mr. Martin was then declared the nominee, and the chair then appointed T. A. Frazer to wait upon Mr. Martin and inform him of his nomination. He soon appeared and addressed the meeting in an eloquent speech, returning thanks for the honor conferred upon him.

Col. Duvall was then called and took the stand and made a most excellent speech, expressing himself as fairly beaten and that he cordially endorsed the proceedings of the meeting.

Upon motion, of W. V. Prather, of Mt. Olivet, the following resolution was offered and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That in the event of a vacancy occurring in the U. S. Senatorship from Kentucky, that the Democracy of this Senatorial district are in favor of L. W. Powell to represent them in that body.

Upon motion, of W. H. Forsythe, the Secretary was requested to furnish, for publication, a copy of the proceedings of this meeting to the Cynthiana News, Georgetown Times, Cincinnati Enquirer, and Maysville Bulletin.

Upon motion, the convention adjourned sine die.

A. J. Beale, N. Craig,

Secty. Prest.

For the Cynthiana News.

Lexington, May 10, '67.

Mr. Editor:—

"Cynthianians" impressions of Lexington and its people may not be entirely devoid of interest to many of the readers of your valuable paper.

In one other feature, Lexington is unlike most of the cities farther north. Every second or third door is not marked with the sign above it, "Lager Beer," which betrays an absence of the German element. In lieu of that, the eyes of the visitor occasionally are greeted, in large capitals, with something like this: "Bourbon from 2 to 12 years old." But notwithstanding the absence of "lager," one meets about as many, in proportion to the population, who are weighed down with a huge unwieldy corpulence, as are found in the lager beer cities of New York or Cincinnati. Bourbon has pretty much the same effect that is attributed to the lager beer.

Lexington, in proportion to its size, is one of the wealthiest cities in America, as it is certainly one of the most beautiful. It possesses many attractions to the stranger who visits it. The streets, mostly lined with trees putting on nature's dress of green, are cleanly and sufficiently wide to permit a fine circulation of fresh air. The public edifices and business houses, while they are not gaudy in their architectural structure; present mostly a neat and model appearance, whilst the private residences are models of taste and neatness. But the most striking feature noticeable to the stranger, are the refined manners of the white population, as compared with those of the inhabitants of larger cities. An urbanity and a high-toned bearing are observable, which, being innate, distinguish them in their social and business intercourse; and these qualities, added to a quick native sense and intelligence, exact admiration, and esteem.

During the consultation of the committee, the chairman was called upon for a speech, which he responded to in an able and dignified manner, eliciting much applause.

The committee on credentials reported the following named gentlemen as delegates from Scott: Newton, Craig, A. Thomas, J. Northcutt, J. R. Jones, P. Thomas, S. Kelly, C. Ward, J. W. Longear, T. B. Heazlitt, W. Robb, George Pruitt, A. Lilack and S. Speigle.

Harrison, Henry Ewalt, Wm. Roberts, T. A. Frazer, H. E. Shawhan, S. Levesque, W. H. Forsythe, T. Walden, W. G. Vanderen, J. L. Patterson, D. H. Raymond, Mat Lair, M. Smith, A. J. Beale, F. G. Ashbrook, N. E. Offutt and P. Wherrett.

Robertson, J. Harding, J. E. Brown, W. V. Prater, Jno R. Linville, N. Cummer, C. French, C. Bramble, Col. S. T. Hamilton and W. H. Vanhook; and that the basis for the vote to be cast should be one for every one hundred given Duvall in 1866, which arrangement entitled Scott to 17 votes, Harrison 15 and Robertson 9.

nomest city be more fortunate than the ill-fated Pompei, whose licentiousness and unblushing iniquities called down upon it the avenging fires of Vesuvius.

Pittsburg is noted for its factories; Cincinnati for its flour and pork interests; Baltimore is called the city of monuments; but Lexington may be called the city of schools. They manifest a deep interest in the cause of education. There are here, some of the best institutions of learning that can be found in the country, and they are liberally patronized. Nearly every second or third person you meet in the street carries a book in his hand. As the young Indian grows to manhood in the daily exercise of his bow and arrow, so the youth of Lexington learns early to familiarize himself with the use of books. The fine arts, too, are sedulously cultivated. Poets, artists and scholars flourish here; and now, as I write, the rich strains of an orchestra rush in at my window, while from across the street the soft and gentle notes of a piano, accompanied with the still more gentle voice of woman are stealing in and making delicious music.

Lexington contains and supports three newspapers, which are issued semi-weekly; and here I must say it does not come up to its established reputation for its liberal patronage of the cause of enlightened process. A city with the population that Lexington contains, ought to support one or two daily papers; especially when the large amount of business which is carried on here, is taken into consideration. The business men depend on the Cincinnati papers for their daily news.

Of the papers now published, the Observer & Reporter has the most extensive circulation, and is deservedly popular with the people, for it is very ably edited, and the managers are among the cleverest and most polite of gentlemen. Both the Gazette and Statesman are semi-weekly papers, conducted with success and considerable ability.

In one other feature, Lexington is unlike most of the cities farther north. Every second or third door is not marked with the sign above it, "Lager Beer," which betrays an absence of the German element. In lieu of that, the eyes of the visitor occasionally are greeted, in large capitals, with something like this: "Bourbon from 2 to 12 years old." But notwithstanding the absence of "lager," one meets about as many, in proportion to the population, who are weighed down with a huge unwieldy corpulence, as are found in the lager beer cities of New York or Cincinnati. Bourbon has pretty much the same effect that is attributed to the lager beer.

The numerous livery and sale stables found all over the city are evidences of the prevailing partiality which the inhabitants entertain for the sports and recreations of horse-manship.

The disciples of Escutapius are here to be pitted; for to them, it must be distressingly healthy. Sickness resulting fatally, I am told, is very rare, and no means are spared which are calculated to preserve the general health of the city. This is especially a desirable place to live to those who possess sufficient wealth to retire from business. For the quiet and temperate pursuits of pleasure, and the enjoyment of life's peaceful blessing's it is unequalled.

Maj. Bloom requests all who have made contracts with blacks to have them registered. If any have orphan children and wish them apprenticed call at the office over the post office.

A Ben Butler club has been organized in New Orleans.

It is strongly hinted that some of Brownlow's militia are to be sent to the Northwest to fight the Indians, as soon as the election is over.

The Knoxville and Kentucky Railroad company will in a short time complete their depot at Knoxville. The road is to be pushed vigorously forward to completion.

A reporter, describing certain races not long since, closes by saying:

"There was a mule race late in the afternoon, which was doubtless very amusing, but, as we had other fish to fry, we did not remain to participate in it."

A lady named Mrs. Julia Synott, who lives on Union street, about half a mile from the Pigeon Roost road, chanced to be left alone on Wednesday night, her husband having gone to Texas. The fact was known to a colored family living about three hundred yards from the house of Mrs. Synott, and about 10 o'clock at night she, who had gone to bed, was awakened by some one making a noise on the outside of the house. She went to the window, and saw a negro sitting on the fence. She asked what he wanted, and he replied by asking if some one whom he named lived there. She told him no such person lived there. The negro asked a number of questions, and was told not to make so much noise, as he might awaken some one in the house. This was said to deter him, as she became apprehensive that he would try to rob the house. He said he didn't care, and said that he knew that there was nobody in the house. He immediately picked up a brick and threw it at the window. It broke one of the slats of the blind. The place is some distance from any other house, and she became alarmed; so going to another room she procured a revolver and waited. The negro threw some bricks at the window, and finally commenced tearing out the slats of the blinds as if he intended to force an entrance. She not knowing what outrages he contemplated, raised the pistol and fired. The negro groaned and jumped back. She could not hear him, and waited in momentary expectation of his return, but she waited there till daylight. When it became light, she perceived him lying on the ground. She ran out back way and alarmed the neighbors, who repaired to her house and picking up the negro, found him shot through the heart. He was found to be John McEwin who lived in the house close by. A coroner's inquest was held on the body, and the conduct of Mrs. Synott entirely justified.—Memphis Avalanche.

The people of Augusta, Ga., have been thrown into a state of feverish excitement by the sudden and mysterious disappearance of Mr. Patrick Gray, a prominent business man of that city, which occurred last Sunday night. Nothing is known to have been preying upon his mind to lead him to any violent act. A reward of $1,000 is offered by his relatives for information of his fate.

It is regarded as an unfavorable symptom of the times that flour in the North is worth twenty dollars per barrel. They are shipping grain to the West which was grown in California; was shipped to New York, and thence to Liverpool and back. This remarkable and unnatural state of things seems strong evidence of a great monetary convulsion.

It is intimated that the little effort made to secure a Southern man in the Cabinet was for the benefit of his excellency Joe. Brown, of Georgia. It is very well then that Postmaster General Randall's resignation was not accepted.

It is said that the ballance in hand when the land is sold, the ballance in two equal payments, of 1 and 2 years, with interest, from date the 1st of September, 1867, when possession will be given. A general warranty deed executed on the 1st of September next, with a lien for the purchase money.

The frost has left the fruit untouched, and the prospect for peaches and cream, is good.

J. J. Parish, we understand, is about to erect a new brick ware-house, on the railroad east of the Rankin House.

A difficulty occurred in Lexington the other day, between a negro and a white man named James Mulloy, in which the latter was stabbed and killed.

The post master in this place, offers his office boxes for sale, and we think it would be a much better plan for the citizens, and a certain way to secure his mail. Every man should have a box.

We regret to learn that the Hon. Elijah Hise, of the Third Congressional District, committed suicide by shooting himself through the head with pistol, on Thursday, May 9, 1867.

Circuit court, Judge Conaghan on the bench, continues to have plenty of business for the legal fraternity of this region. There seems to be an improvement in litigation, at least of civil suits.

Mr. Charles Rieckel, the jeweler on Main street, has received a large and fine assortment of watches, gold and silver, together with an endless variety of gold rings. To appreciate his new styles, we advise our friends to call and see for themselves.

We hear that many dogs in certain sections of the country, are running mad, and that not a few people have been bitten. We say to our readers beware of dogs. Our city council should adopt an ordinance or dog law.

A Democratic Convention is to be held at Leesburg on Saturday May 18, at 2 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of appointing delegates to the county convention to be held in Cynthiana county court day in June. By order of Committee.

Mr. Geo. H. Fightmaster and one Charles Wilson, having taken too much strong drink, became beligerent and pounded each other some, for which they were permitted to pay the Mayor of our city, ten dollars each.

The style which the Covington Railroad company proposes to build their depot at this place don't suit us entirely. If we owned the road, a depot should be made that would occupy both sides of the road, and have the cars stop in the depot instead of at the depot. Can't you stand that Mr. Keith?

Thos Megibbon reports that on Monday last, a heavy hail storm passed over his portion of country, Lairs Station, and that all his wheat and barley is destroyed, and that he will have to feed it down. It was a small section of country where the hail fell.

County-court day, last Monday, was quite a brisk day. The cry of the auctioneer was heard, selling property to the highest bidder, as well as the shouts of an occasional "walking pickle," enthused with whisky and politices. With the exception of seven or eight knock-downs, (in which nobody was hurt,) the town held its own for quietness, as well as usual.

How soothing, how sublimely beautiful are the sweet strains of melody as they come borne to us upon the wings of evening; how it fills the heart with gladness! Yet, midst all this joy and happiness, how it mars our pleasure to meet our neighbors or companions suffering from the ravages of a violent cough or an obstinate cold. The soothing, quieting propensities of Coe's Cough Balsam allays all the irritations, and will speedily cure the most obstinate cases of croup, cough, sore throat and influenza.

A bouquet was presented to us the other day, the first of the season. 'Twas a fair assortment of early spring flowers, and was gathered by "two friends," with but a single thought, and whose hearts, they said, beat as one. That, according to Parthenia, is love itself; and if the bouquet came in that spirit, (and we have no reason to doubt it,) we accept it with a heart overflowing with thankfulness:

'Twas a lovely thought to mark the hours
As they floated in light away,
By the opening and folding flowers
That laugh to the summer's day;
Oh! let us live, so that flower by flower,
Shutting in turn may leave
A bligerent still for the sunset hour,
A charm for the faded eve.

MAY DAY FESTIVITIES.—On Saturday last, the good people in the vicinity of Ruddell's Mills, permitted themselves and their little ones to enjoy the festivities of a May Day. Mr. Stratton, the principal of the school in town, and Mr. Shirliff, principal of the suburban institute united their efforts and their pupils, and made a grand affair of the celebration. The young ladies were arrayed in all their beauty and grandeur, with "white" as the order of the day, decorated in evergreens and spring flowers. They all had smiles on their faces and love in their hearts, and seemed to vie with nature itself in a thankfulness for the return of spring and flowers, and green foliage, and singing birds, and the warm rays of the bright summer-sun-shine.

There were two May Queens, one for each school. Miss Sallie H. Howard, was Queen from Mr. Shirliff's school, and Miss Mollie Wills, Miss J. Howard, Miss M. Marston and Miss Maggie Howard were the Maids of Honor.

Miss Levina Stoker, from Mr. Stratton's school, was Queen of May, and Miss Alice Stoker, Matie Hutzell, Miss Jose Lindsay Miss Alice Montgomery and Miss Kimbrough were the Maids of Honor.

These little adies were all very pretty, and passed through the exercise excellently. They gave spring a hearty as well as a modest welcome. Now a choir of chirping minstrels bring in triumph to the world, the youthful spring. The valley, hills and woods, in rich array, welcome the coming of the long'd for May. Now all things smile.

When the Queen's had finished their court exercises, they were all invited to a sumptuous dinner.

The ladies in that portion of God's country, understand what is needed for occasions of this kind, and we feel that they are not in need of our compliments, yet, we will express ourselves at all times, and we beg their pardons for saying that we think that the festivities, the dinner and the whole affair was gotten up in fine style. The day passed off without an accident or disturbance of any kind.

We are authorized to announce Mr. S. T. Wall as a candidate for nomination for the office of commonwealth's attorney in this judicial district, to be elected in August next.

We are authorized to announce Wm. C. Marshall, of Augusta, a Democratic candidate for commonwealth's attorney in this judicial district.

MARRIED.

At the residence of the bride on the 1st of May, by the Rev. B. Lee, Samuel M. Wyatt, to Mrs. Mary Gainer, all of Independence county, Arkansas.

We congratulate our Arkansas friends on their progress in reconstruction, and hope they may always be happy, and love one another.

On Tuesday, May 14, in Cynthiana, by Rev. S. Dering, Mr. J. W. Renaker to Miss Kate Houston, all of this place.

Attendants—Miss Amherstina, Miss Mat. Roberts, Mr. J. P. Young and J. Hedges.

In this matrimonial consummation of the hopes of these young people, the pretty bride was as modest as she was guileless, and the groom was blooming in his manhood. Why shouldn't they be happy?
